

In Person Presentations

Session 1a – Salle Macabies -Health Services Research and Policy Development

Chair: Prof Jenny Gallagher

13.30 Abstract 123 – Alex McMahon - Impact of a national daily toothbrushing and fluoride varnish programme on dental caries in pre-school children in Chile.

13.37 Abstract 130 – Niall McGoldrick – Methodology for establishing a global head and neck cancer research network.

13.44 Abstract 133 – Michael Lorenz – Workforce planning for oral health: development of a needs-based simulation for Burkina Faso.

13.51 Abstract 135 Jenny Gallagher – Delivering Better Oral Health Version 4; a resource for the dental team

13.58 Abstract 141- Vibeke Ansteinsson – The dental service and home-care services, two disintegrated services – us and them

14.05 Abstract 142 – Zoi Tsarnava – The World Health Organisation 74.5 resolution on oral health: challenges for Greece.

14.12 Abstract 146- Stephanie Tubert-Jeanin – O-Health Edu: A vision for dental education in Europe – a progress report.

14. 19 Abstract 148 – Celine Mascre – Evaluation of participation in a dental prevention programme using the French National Health Insurance data set

14.26 Abstract 153 – Verónica Ausina Márquez – The challenge of increasing public oral health care provision in Spain.

Session 1b – Amphithéâtre d’anatomie – IT-based Projects and Undergraduate Student Presentations

Chair: Dr Huda Yusuf

13.30 Abstract 102 – Saujanya Karki – The use of patient-orientated mobile phone applications in oral health: a scoping review

13.37 Abstract 113 – Lukas Berr – An initial assessment of a personalised technological aid for toothbrushing

13.44 Abstract 116 – Paivi Havela – Digital oral health promotion in public health care : a pilot study

13.51 Abstract 132 - Lina Weinart _ Developing a patient companion App for periodontitis: “Paro-ComPas” project study protocol.

13.58 Abstract 151 – Jasmina Zimonjic – Oral stereognosis in patients of different age groups with full dentures in the upper jaw.

14.05 Abstract 115 Lukas Naktinis – Artificial intelligence algorithm accuracy in assessing panoramic radiographs for caries experience.

14.12 Abstract 117 – Haleema Rabeea – A mixed methods evaluation of the Sugarsmart programme – beyond improving knowledge.

14.19 Abstract 120 – Kato Mercihers –Caregivers perspectives on oral health of people with disabilities: qualitative research

14.26 Abstract 122 –Roosa-Maria Kivilahti Nurses’ knowledge in oral care in Oulu University hospital

14.33 Abstract 126 Favour Onwudiwe Co-developing :London’s water-only secondary school toolkit to tackle caries and childhood obesity.

Session 1c Salle des Actes – COVID 19 and Health Services Research and Policy

Chair: Dr Vasileios Margaritis

13.30 Abstract 62 – Jurgita Andruskiene- Oral Health-related cases of Lithuanian parents self-medicating their children during COVID-19 lockdown

13.37 Abstract 98 — Vasileios Margaritis - Evaluation of the attitudes and interpersonal communication skills of Greek dental undergraduate students during COVID-19 restrictions: a mixed methods investigation.[]

13.44 Abstract 107 – Huda Nazar Oral health quality of life among Kuwait Adults during the COVID-19 pandemic

13. 51 Abstract 96 – Folake Lawal Perspectives of Nigerian adolescents about a school]based health promotion programme.

13.58 Abstract 97 Natasa Pejic – Assessment of oral hygiene knowledge and practices among pregnant women in Serbia.

14.05 Abstract 118 – Danielle Barrett Healthy smiles: a pilot to promote oral health for children looked after in London

14.12 Abstract 119 Ave Pöld – Evaluating an oral health training programme for caregivers of children with disabilities – study design.

Session 1d Salle du Conseil - Quality of Life and Inequalities

Chair: Gitana Rederiene

13.30 Abstract 57 – Vesna Ambarkova – North Macedonian dental students' knowledge regarding child abuse and neglect

13.37 Abstract 70 Awani Balasooriyan – Professionals perspectives on addressing persistent oral health inequality among young children

13.44 Abstract 86 Gitana Rederiene – Relationships between job satisfaction and musculoskeletal and psychological disorders of Lithuanian dental hygienists.

13.51 Abstract 103 – Laine Kar Man Choong Impact of removable partial dentures on OHRQoL; A systematic review and meta-analysis.

13.58 Abstract 108 Monique H. van der Veen Living in a deprived neighbourhood directly influences children's dietary habits

14.05 Abstract 129 Marte-Mari Uhlen- Strand Challenges in providing dental care for non-institutionalised care-dependent older adults in Norway.

14.12. Abstract 136 Ilze Maldupa Parents@ satisfaction with aesthetic results of non-invasive severe early childhood caries treatments

14.19 Abstract 152 Shlomo Zusman Oral health disparities among 65+ age groups in Israel

Session 1e – Salle Bonaventure – Epidemiology and Other Studies

Chair: Prof Jackie Vanobbergen

13.30 Abstract 92 Tatiana Porosencova Oral health behaviour of parents of 0 -3-yearold Moldovan children

13.37 Abstract 99 – Amal Skandrani Caries prevalence and dental status déterminants in 12-year-old Caledonian children.

13.44 Abstract 112 Julija Narbutaite Knowledge of risk factors for early childhood caries among mothers with toddlers

13.51 Abstract 114 Zana Sakalauskiene Evaluation of oral health knowledge and attitudes among health care students ; methodology

13.58 Abstract 124 Hanna Kangasmaa Erosive wear among a group of Finnish adolescents

14.05 Abstract 127 Amandeep Pabbla Association between integration and oral health status and oral health care utilisation among Indian migrants living in the Netherlands

14.12 Abstract 128 – Carolina Blomma Caries prevalence in six-year-olds in relation to socio-economic factors development 2010 – 2019.

14.19 Abstract 140 Hero I. Hassan Oral healthcare related beliefs among personnel working in home care services in Norway.

14.26 Abstract 145 – Mohammad Hamad Unidimensionality of schizophrenia coping oral health profile and index (SCOOHPI): A Rasch model analysis

14.31 Abstract 154 – Yolanda Martinez-Beneyto Spanish oral health survey 2020